

MARSEA Thesis

Requirements

The MARSEA master's thesis must be at least 35 pages in length (not including the bibliography) and deal with a modern or contemporary topic in the social sciences that focuses on the Asia Pacific region. It must substantially incorporate discussion of the student's region of specialization, although other countries and regions may be treated in the paper. The use of primary source material is strongly encouraged.

A Thesis Proposal, together with a signed Advisor Form, must be submitted one semester before the student submits his or her thesis (i.e. to submit a thesis in the Spring semester, students should submit a proposal in the preceding Fall semester).

Thesis Advisor

Each student works with a faculty member who serves as their Thesis Advisor. As many students choose to expand on a paper written for a seminar course into their MARSEA thesis, the instructor of the course often serves as the Thesis Advisor. Students may, however, work with any faculty member of the Institute, or another Columbia University faculty member or course instructor. Students submit an Advisor Form with their advisor's signature along with their Thesis Proposal. Download the form on <http://marsea.weai.columbia.edu> > Resources > For Current Students.

Thesis Proposal

The MARSEA thesis proposal, due in the semester prior to the student's desired semester of graduation, should include the following:

- Title
- 500-word description of the topic, research methodology, and conceptual framework
- Preliminary bibliography

Formatting

- The final PDF of your thesis should be in 12-point font size (choose a classic Serif font, such as Times New Roman)
- Number all pages
- Double-space all lines, but do not add extra line-space between paragraphs
- Indent the first line of each paragraph by 0.5"
- Alignment: flush left margin (jagged right margin)
- Follow the Chicago Manual of Style. For references, you may use footnotes OR endnotes; alternatively, you may use in-text citations in combination with footnotes or endnotes
- Include full Chicago-style bibliography
- Include a cover page according to the following format:

Submission and Review

A PDF of the final thesis must be submitted to the Thesis Advisor and to the Student Affairs Coordinator via email by the appropriate deadline (see below). Once a student's Thesis Advisor has had time to review the submitted thesis, the advisor will send any comments and the final letter grade to the Student Affairs Coordinator, who, after confirming that the student has satisfied all their degree requirements, will pass the grade and comments to the students and clear the student for graduation.
